The series combines elements of murder mystery, psychological thriller, and high-stakes gameplay, where players must uncover the truth behind various murders that occur within a closed environment, typically a school. Each game features a unique cast of characters, known as "Ultimate" students, who possess exceptional skills in various fields, from cooking to literature.

The overarching narrative involves a sinister bear named Monokuma, who forces the students to participate in a deadly game where the only way to escape is to successfully murder one of their peers and get away with it. This creates a dramatic atmosphere filled with tension, intrigue, and unexpected plot twists. As players engage with the story, they must gather evidence, participate in class trials, and ultimately deduce the identity of the murderer.
