Step 1: Choose Your Quiz Type

Decide on the type of quiz you want to create. Will it be a trivia quiz, personality quiz, or something else? This will determine the structure of your questions.

Gather information and formulate questions that will challenge fellow fans. Make sure the questions are accurate and relevant. You can pull questions from various seasons, characters, and episodes.

Craft your questions in an engaging way. Instead of just asking for a fact, consider adding context or a fun twist. For example, instead of asking, "What year did 'Doctor Who' first air?" you could say, "In what year did we first hear the TARDIS materialize?"

If you're creating a multiple-choice quiz, make sure the answer options are fun and varied. Include some humorous or outrageous answers to keep it light-hearted.
