Introduction to ENHYPEN

ENHYPEN is a South Korean boy group formed by BELIFT LAB, a joint venture between Big Hit Entertainment and CJ ENM. The group debuted on November 30, 2020, and quickly gained immense popularity both domestically and internationally. They were selected through the survival reality show "I-LAND," which showcased the talents of various trainees. ENHYPEN consists of seven members: Heeseung, Heon, Sunghoon, Sunoo, Ni-ki, Jungwon, and Heesung. Their name, ENHYPEN, symbolizes the idea of connecting and creating new things by bringing different elements together, much like the hyphen (-) connects words. This concept resonates throughout their music and performances.

Their debut EP, "BORDER: DAY ONE," featured the title track "Given-Taken," which explores themes of identity, belonging, and the challenges of fame. ENHYPEN's music incorporates various genres, including pop, R&B, and hip-hop, showcasing their versatility and artistic growth. With a dedicated fan base known as "ENGINE," the group has made a significant impact on the K-pop scene. In this article, we'll delve deeper into the individual members and share interesting facts that can help you shine in an ENHYPEN member quiz.
