Introduction to ENHYPEN

ENHYPEN is a South Korean boy band formed through the reality survival show "I-LAND," which aired in 2020. The group debuted under Belift Lab, a joint venture between Big Hit Entertainment (now HYBE Corporation) and CJ ENM. Consisting of seven talented members—Heeseung, Hee-seung, Sunghoon, Sunoo, Ni-ki, Jungwon, and Jake—ENHYPEN quickly garnered a massive following, known as Engenes. The group's name symbolizes their desire to connect people across different cultures and backgrounds, similar to the way hyphens connect words. Since their debut with the mini-album "BORDER: DAY ONE," ENHYPEN has released a series of successful albums, charted on various music platforms, and won numerous awards. Their music often explores themes of youth, identity, and growth, resonating with fans worldwide. Spotify has played a significant role in their rise to fame, allowing fans to stream their music easily and stay updated on their releases.
