Types of Textbooks

At Colorado State University, textbooks can be categorized into several types based on their usage and format. Understanding these categories can help students make informed choices about their learning materials.

Printed Textbooks

Printed textbooks are traditional physical books that students can purchase or rent. These are commonly used in classrooms and are often required for coursework. CSU offers a variety of printed textbooks across all disciplines, including sciences, humanities, business, and engineering.

E-Textbooks

E-textbooks have gained popularity due to their convenience and accessibility. These digital versions can be accessed on various devices, including tablets, laptops, and smartphones. Many students prefer e-textbooks for their portability and often lower price points compared to printed versions.

Custom Course Packs

Some courses at CSU may require custom course packs, which are compilations of articles, essays, and excerpts from various sources. These packs are tailored specifically to the course syllabus and can be obtained through the CSU Bookstore or course instructors.

Open Educational Resources (OER)

Open Educational Resources are increasingly being adopted by educational institutions, including CSU. These are free or low-cost materials available online that can be used in place of traditional textbooks. OER can include textbooks, videos, quizzes, and other teaching materials, providing a cost-effective alternative for students.

Where to Buy or Rent Textbooks

Finding the right place to buy or rent textbooks is crucial for students at Colorado State University. There are several options available that cater to different needs and preferences.

CSU Bookstore

The Colorado State University Bookstore is the primary resource for students looking to purchase or rent textbooks. The bookstore offers a wide selection of new and used textbooks, as well as e-textbooks. Students can also find supplies, gear, and other academic materials here.

Online Retailers

Online retailers such as Amazon, Chegg, and eBay provide additional options for students seeking textbooks. These platforms often have competitive prices and a vast selection of both new and used books. Renting textbooks online is also a popular choice, allowing students to save money while still having access to the required materials.

Local Libraries

Local libraries, including the CSU Morgan Library, can be invaluable resources for students. Many libraries have copies of required textbooks available for short-term loan. This can be an excellent way to access materials without the financial burden of purchasing them outright.
